

GLOBAL PROGRESS

MONTREAL 2017

Québec

policy network

Center for American Progress

Friday, September 15, 2017 | Campaign Masterclass

10:00	Registration opens	All Participants	3rd Floor Lobby
12:00	Masterclass Lunch	All Participants	4th Floor Lobby
12:15	Welcome to the Campaign Masterclass	Matt Browne (Global Progress) Tom Pitfield (Data Sciences)	Ballroom
12:25	Presentation, Drivers of Populism: Presentation, Divided by Meaning:	Yascha Mounk (Executive Director, Tony Blair Institute for Global Change) Chris Arnade (Writer and Photographer)
13:15	Opening Plenary: Populism & Future of Progressive Politics
	How does the rise of populism change the political and electoral context for progressives? What strategies have proven effective for countering populism on the left and right, or the anti-establishment movements? What are the new initiatives progressives need to undertake to encourage new and a more diverse spectrum of people to run for office? Where are the opportunities for progressives to build transnational campaigns that counter nationalist and isolationist tendencies? Panel discussion: Hans Anker (CEO, Anker Solutions, Netherlands) Amy Dacey (Former CEO, Democratic National Committee, USA) Marije Laffeber (Deputy Secretary General, Party of European Socialists) Amanda Litman (Founder, Run for Something) Moderated by Sasha Issenberg (Monocle)
14:15	Break	All Participants	4th Floor Foyer

14:30	Global Progress Greetings & Conversation	Rt. Hon. Justin Trudeau (Prime Minister, Canada)	Ballroom
15:10	Break	All Participants	4th Floor Foyer
15:30	Campaign Masterclass:		Ballroom
	TED style session featuring presentations on the “state of the art techniques” in data and social media, mobilizing campaigns and messaging, followed by a moderated conversation between the presenters and the audience.
	Digital Campaigning Data Driven Movements Building Movements for Change Communications & Narrative	Tom Pitfield (Data Sciences) Bryan Whitaker (CTO, Target Smart) Mitch Stewart (Founding Partner, 270 Strategies) Jennifer Palmieri (President, CAP Action Fund) Moderated by Anne Johnson (Grassroots Solutions)
16:50	Close	Matthew Laza (Director, Policy Network)	Ballroom
19:30	Global Progress Opening Reception	All Global Progress Delegates	Bar George (Upstairs)
		Anna Gainey (President, Liberal Party of Canada) John Podesta (Founder, Center for American Progress) Peter Mandelson (President, Policy Network)

Saturday, September 16, 2017 | Global Progress Summit

7:00	Registration open, breakfast available		3rd Floor Foyer
8:30	Welcome to Global Progress 2017	Tom Pitfield (Canada 2020) Matt Browne (Global Progress)	Ballroom
8:45	Opening Keynote	Hon. Philippe Couillard (Premier of Quebec)	Ballroom
9:00	Opening Plenary: Global Progress in Context		Ballroom
Progressive politics stands at a crossroads. With persistent economic inequality, rising fears about the impact of technology on the economies and democracies of the future, the rise of a toxic politics of identity and division, and the resurgence of authoritarian regimes, the need for progressive solutions to society's most pressing challenges has never been greater. How best can progressives meet these challenges, collaborate, and share ideas to advance the goals of social democracy and progressive governance?
	Keynote:	David Miliband (President, Int'l Rescue Committee)
	Panel Discussion:	Maria Elena Boschi MP (Undersecretary, Prime Minister's Office, Italy) Roland Lescure MP (President, Parliamentary Econ Committee, France) Hon. Philippe Couillard (Premier of Quebec) Helena Dalli MP (Minister for European Affairs and Equality, Malta) Moderated by Matthew Laza (Director, Policy Network)
10:45	Transition to Breakout Sessions w. Coffee	All Delegates	3rd Floor Foyer

11:00	Parallel Breakout Sessions	Drummond Rooms
	Inequality & Future of Inclusive Prosperity	Torsten Bell (Director, Resolution Foundation) Heather Boushey (President, Center for Equitable Growth) Miles Corak (Fellow, Government of Canada) Brendan Howlin (Leader, Irish Labour Party)
	Countering Extremism & Intolerance	Brendon Cox (Founder, More in Common) Tim Dixon (Managing Director, Purpose Europe) Cornell Belcher (President, Brilliant Corners)
	Participative Democracy in Digital Age	Wael Ghonim (Egyptian Activist & Fellow @ Harvard's Shorenstein Center) Ben Rattray (Founder and President, Change.org) Christine Poirier (Liberal Party of Canada - Quebec)
12:30	Lunch Presentations: Food for thought?	Ballroom
	Brexit no Exit? Update from the Albion Kick-Starting the Data Revolution Peace by Chocolate	Stephen Kinnock MP (Labour MP, Aberavon, Wales) Derek Ruths (Chief Architect, Civil Analytics International) Tareq Hadhad (Syrian-Canadian Entrepreneur)
13:30	Parallel Breakout Sessions II	Drummond Rooms
	21st Century Infrastructure	Gordon Bajnai (Chair, Advisory Board, Campbell Luytens) Fred Hochberg (Fmr President, Import-Export Bank of USA) Yves Desjardins-Siciliano (President & CEO, VIA Rail Canada)

Social Progress Index & Data Driven Governance

Michael Green (President, Social Progress Index)
Amit Kapoor (President, India Council on Competitiveness)
Valeria Moy (Director, México, ¿Cómo Vamos?)

Combating Climate Change

John Podesta (Founder, Center for American Progress)
David Heurtel (Minister for Environment, Quebec, Canada)
Sam Crosby (Director, McKell Institute, Australia)
Juan Moscoso (International Director, Economic and Social Council, Spain)

14:45 Return to Ballroom

All Delegates

15:00 Live Link: "Let's Do It"

Jacinda Ardern (Leader, New Zealand Labour Party) Skype
Moderated by Matt Browne (Global Progress)

15:15 Panel: Innovation, Skills & the Future of Work

Ballroom

Advances in automation, artificial intelligence and data sciences are ushering in a fourth industrial revolution that will transform today's economy beyond all recognition. How can progressives prepare our societies for the jobs of the future and the innovation economy? What policies and strategies are best placed to ensure that the benefits from this economic shift are shared more fairly?

Mike Moffatt (Chief Innovation Fellow, ISED, Canada)
Diego Piacentini (Digital Commissioner, Italy)
Andreas Schleicher (Director, Directorate of Education & Skills, OECD)
Karen Kornbluh (Council on Foreign Relations, USA)
Moderated by Paul Hofheinz (Founder & President, Lisbon Council)

16:15	Panel: A Global New Deal for Shared Prosperity		Ballroom
	While globalization has brought enormous benefits, those gains have often been unequally or diffusely distributed, while the costs have been localised and concentrated. The global progressive movement is best placed to shape a “Global New Deal”, yet how best can progressives ensure that future prosperity is shared more equally and sustainably, and thus support for an open global system can be maintained?
		Frans Timmermans (First Vice President, European Commission) Neera Tanden (President, Center for American Progress) Peter Mandelson (President, Policy Network) Moderated by Giuliano da Empoli (Founder & President, Volta, Italy)
17:15	Day One Closing Keynote	Lodewijk Asscher (Deputy PM, Netherlands)	Ballroom
18:30	Reception	All Delegates	Le Club Sheraton Summit
Sunday, September 17, 2017
8:00	Breakfast available	All Delegates	4th Floor Foyer
8:50	Welcome Back	Tom Pitfield (Canada 2020)	Ballroom
9:00	Keynote: A Global Perspective on Millennial Generation	David Lewis (CEO & Founder, AudienceNet)	Ballroom

9:20 Panel: Renovating Democracy for the Digital Age: Towards A New Public Square?

Ballroom

The advent of social media and information and communications technology has revolutionised the way in which people receive information and communicate with one another. With the advent of fake news, and an increased polarization of public debate, there is now an urgent need to renovate democracy and the public square. How best can we achieve this?

Steve Huffman (CEO, Reddit)

Arianna Huffington (Founder, Huffpost & Founder Thrive Global)

Reid Hoffman (Co-Founder, LinkedIn)

Nikos Pappas (Minister of Digital Policy, Telecomm & Media), Greece)

Moderated by Dawn Nakagawa (EVP, Berggruen Institute)

10:30 Canada's Action on Climate Change

Catherine McKenna (Environment & Climate Minister, Canada)

11:00 Panel: Defending the International Order

Ballroom

The migration crisis, escalating nuclear rhetoric, the rise of cyber attacks, and the resurgence of authoritarian regimes and far-right movements are each posing new challenges to the post-war liberal international order. In this context, how best can progressives collaborate to defend and renew the rule of law, respect for human rights, and the democratic values we cherish?

Sandro Gozi (Secretary of State for European Affairs, Italy)

Helle Thorning-Schmidt (President, Save the Children)

Lilianne Ploumen (Minister for Foreign Trade & Development, Netherlands)

Toomas Ilves (Fmr. President of Estonia)

Moderated by Robert Greenhill (Executive Chairman, Global Canada)

12:00	Closing Synopsis	Matt Browne Tom Pitfield (Canada 2020)	Ballroom
12:00	Networking Lunch	All Delegates	4th Floor Foyer